

"IT'S THE BEST LITTLE ROAD RACE IN CALIFORNIA"

THE COURSE

The meandering, race route along scenic Monterey Bay plays no small part in the popularity of this run. You'll find new inspiration at every turn of the pristine coastline. Cool ocean breezes provide natural air conditioning. If you're coming from someplace hot, you're in for a treat!

Starting at the Santa Cruz Wharf, at 8:30AM the race opens with a dash down Beach Street, passing the Ferris wheel, roller coaster and merry-go-round of the world famous Santa Cruz Beach Boardwalk. Runners then cross San Lorenzo Bridge and loop around the Yacht Harbor to Twin Lakes Beach. Turning inland the course winds through Schwann Lake Wildlife Sanctuary then breaks back onto the ocean bluffs at Pleasure Point. From there the way wanders through quaint seaside neighborhoods before dipping down to a festive finish at the Capitola Wharf.
